ANDY OFFIT

In the spring of 2017, Andy Offit embarked on a journey as Chair of the Board of Hebrew College. This was his goal: Hebrew College to be in a new home, debt free with a balanced and sustainable budget for the first time in over 25 years.

Andy enjoys a steep learning curve and a good challenge. He also demands hard-working and high-energy partners, honest reflection for necessary adjustments, vision, detailed plans, and collaboration with an eye on the numbers. Andy is a numbers guy. Andy also likes to accomplish his goals. And he did. Hebrew College affirmed his skillset–and an opportunity to learn many new skills!!

He chaired the Hebrew College board while taking the LSAT, applying, attending and graduating from law school, and passing the bar. And as Hebrew College stepped into its strong and healthy future, so did Andy as a lawyer, his third professional iteration.

Andy's passion for learning includes voracious reading about American history, United States presidents, his beloved New England Patriots, the criminal justice system, and anything his three adult sons are also interested in. He loves boats, trucks and bicycles. He has dedicated energy and time to understanding and mitigating the structures that create inequality and instability in this country. Andy's other past board work includes Solomon Schechter Day School of Greater Boston, Social Innovation Forum, My Life My Choice, Courageous Parents Network, and Beaver Country Day.

Andy was born and raised in Pikesville, MD, surrounded by a big, warm and loving family. He attended Emory University, and with his CPA, worked in public accounting for three years in Atlanta. He attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania followed by 13 years at Fidelity Investments as an analyst and portfolio manager. He enjoyed 12 wildly successful years as a partner at Wellington Management. He left the investment business after 25 years influenced by his wife's soulful and meaningful work as a second career, Hebrew College Rabbi. Andy then graduated from the Harvard Kennedy School with a MPA degree, followed by working for the City of Somerville as special assistant to Mayor Joe Curtatone for seven years. The eye-opening experience led him to believe that change in the system happens in the courtroom. In spring of 2021, he graduated from Suffolk Law School. He is admitted to the bar in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Andy is adored by and devoted to his three sons, Adam, David and Yoni, and his wife, Rabbi Suzanne Offit `09.

DAN MILLER

Dan is the founding supporter, in memory of his late wife, Betty Ann z"l, of the Miller Center for Interreligious Learning & Leadership at Hebrew College, where he is a past Board member and current Finance and Investment Committee member. He is also a 1999 Hebrew College Me'ah graduate.

Among his other philanthropic interests, Dan is a long-time supporter of the Rashi School, where he sits on the Board of Trustees and is a member of its Budget & Finance Committee. Dan helped establish the Betty Ann Greenbaum Miller Center for Jewish Healing at Jewish Family & Children's Service, also named in memory of his late wife. He has been a long-standing member of the Investment Committee of the Squam Lakes Association, one of the country's earliest non-profit conservation organizations dating back well over 100 years.

Dan is a Partner and Director of Equities at GW&K Investment Management in Boston where, for the past 14 years, he has managed all aspects of the firm's global equity business, including portfolio management, research and trading. This follows a career of over two decades at Putnam Investments, where he was the Chief Investment Officer of the firm's Specialty Growth Equity Group and managed the mutual fund of the decade in the 1990s. He began his career in the late 1970s as an analyst at Morgan Stanley. Dan received a BS with highest honors from the University of California Berkeley in 1979 and an MBA from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business in 1983. He earned the Chartered Financial Analyst designation in 1986 and is a member of the CFA Society Boston and the CFA Institute.

Dan spends his weekdays in the Boston area, although he and his partner, Deborah Ancona, spend as much free time as possible at their lake home in New Hampshire where they particularly enjoy hiking and biking. Dan's two sons, Adam and Matthew, attended the Rashi School, and were Hebrew College Prozdor students in their teen years.

ESTHER AWARD AND DEDICATION OF SCULPTURE

NANCY SCHÖN

International sculptor Nancy Schön's newly commissioned sculpture will live in the Hebrew College courtyard to honor generations of Hebrew College donors. Schön created the famous "Make Way for Ducklings" sculpture in the Boston Public Garden (and another one in Moscow) and has created over a dozen prominent public sculptures and many for private collections.

PANEL DISCUSSION A Dialogue of Devotion: Miller Center Fellows

Rabbi Batya Ellinoy `22 – Moderator

Rabbi Batya Elana Ellinoy received rabbinic ordination from Hebrew College, graduating with a Master's in Jewish Education. She was privileged to work with the Miller Center in a variety of capacities over the last five years and she is currently serving as the Upper School Director at Temple Beth Elohim in Wellesley, MA. Rabbi Ellinoy is also completing a multi-year training to be a certified practitioner in Somatic Experiencing®, a psychobiological approach to help resolve trauma and stress disorders, and she is committed to integrating this healing approach into her spiritual leadership.

PANELISTS

Meital Baker, Dignity Project Fellow, 2022-2023

Meital is a senior at Gann Academy in Waltham, MA. She comes from a strong Jewish background and her family belongs to three different synagogues. At her school, she created a Minyan (prayer group) that is aimed at maximizing women's roles within Jewish law. She is the co-leader of the Gann club CABB-connections awareness and breaking barriers at Gann. She plans on taking a gap year in Israel after she graduates and will then return to attend the University of Maryland.

Shruti Gupta,
BILI Fellow, 2019-2020/ BILI Alumni Liaison, 2020-2021

Shruti was a Miller Center Building Interfaith Leadership Initiative (BILI) fellow from 2019-2020, while studying political science at Boston University. She continued on as the BILI program's alumni liaison from 2020-2021. Currently, she works at MIT supporting their free digital education initiatives and is heading to graduate school in the fall to study data science.

LaShyra Nolen, Boston Bridges Fellow, 2021-2022

Born and raised in Southern California, LaShyra "Lash" Nolen is a writer, activist, and dual-degree MD/MPP student at Harvard Medical School and Harvard Kennedy School of Government, where she serves as student council president of her medical school class–the first documented Black woman to hold this leadership position. Additionally, her voice has been featured in Nature, National Public Radio (NPR) and Teen Vogue, and she was a participant in the 2021-2022 Boston Bridges program.

LIVE MUSIC

Rabbi Jessica Kate Meyer `14, Vocals

Jessica Kate Meyer is a prayer leader, storyteller, vocalist, and rabbi, who served as rabbi-hazzan at Romemu in NYC, and most recently, at The Kitchen in San Francisco. She has studied sacred Jewish music with masters from Ashkenazi and Mizrahi traditions and has performed as a vocalist with ensembles in the US and Israel. In a previous life, Jessica appeared in film, theater, and television projects in Europe and the United States: most notably, as a principal role in the Oscar-winning film, "The Pianist."

Oren Neiman – guitar and mandolin

George Lernis – percussion

Hadar Ahuvia, Hebrew College rabbinical student – vocals

Julia Sabra, Hebrew College rabbinical student – guitar and vocals

Sam Tygiel, Hebrew College rabbinical student – vocals

ABOUT THE BETTY ANN GREENBAUM MILLER CENTER OF HEBREW COLLEGE

The mission of the Betty Ann Greenbaum Miller Center for Interreligious Learning & Leadership of Hebrew College is rooted in the cultivation of authentic personal and institutional relationships across lines of difference. Through study, dialogue, and joint action, the Miller Center works to create a more just, compassionate, and sustainable world. HEBREWCOLLEGE.EDU/MILLER-CENTER

"I see each individual life represented by a single thread...The varieties of threads create a beautiful pattern that flow through the fabric as if on the breath of life itself."

Hebrew College and their honorees

Andy Offit
Chair, Hebrew College Board of Trustees

and

Dan Miller
Founder, Betty Ann Greenbaum Miller Center for Interreligious Learning & Leadership of Hebrew College; Chair, Hebrew College Investment Committee; Member, Hebrew College Finance Committee

at the Annual Spring Gala

Thank you for all that you do to foster Jewish life and make our world a better place.

May you go from strength to strength

"Dedication sees dreams come true."
– Kobe Bryant

Congratulations and thank you to Andy Offit for your support, dedication, and leadership of Hebrew College over these past several years. Your timeless commitment has been so instrumental in getting us to our new campus!

Thank you all for your support of Hebrew College and the Miller Center in my honor and in memory of Betty Ann z"l. It is indeed my pleasure to be one of this year's honorees.

Dan Miller, Me'ah '99

To our esteemed honorees,

There are three crowns:
the crown of Torah,
the crown of priesthood,
and the crown of royalty,
but the crown of a good name is best of all.

Pirket Avot 4:13

Andy Offit, Having served two terms as Board Chair, you have inspired others to envision more, accomplish more, and become more. Steadfast commitment, lots of overtime, extreme focus, sound judgment, wide-ranging intelligence, extraordinary benevolence, and a sense of humor propelled the success of your unfaltering leadership,

Dan Miller, In loving memory, you established the Betty Ann Greenbaum Miller Center for Interreligious Learning & Leadership. The compelling mission is rooted in the cultivation of authentic personal and institutional relationships across lines of difference to foster study, dialogue, and joint action to promote the values of Tikkun Olam. We honor your extraordinary generosity, vision, and intention to further Betty Ann's legacy from generation to generation in perpetuity.

Andy and Dan, Your character, humility, and uprightness are the best of all.

With abundant gratitude we honor your leadership, vision, and good name.

Mazel tov to our Chair Andy Offit, who during his term has done it all! Thank you, Andy!!

Andy: you persevered like Moses despite adversity – Exodus 5: Moses appeared before Pharoah nine times

-Like Moses you had clear goals and objectives – Exodus 10: Moses stood firm.

-Like Moses you delegated functions – Exodus 18

-You established rules and order as did Moses in Exodus 28: Organization and discipline

-You were a strong negotiator as was Moses in Deuteronomy 20

-Like you, Moses was a communicator – Exodus 4: He did so through Aaron.

-Like yourself, Andy, Moses was not intimidated by gossip Number 12 and 16!!

Dan Miller:

So happy to serve with you on the Board of Trustees.

We are proud to say that our family's ties to Hebrew College date back 75 years and continue to this day. Jordy's aunt, Anita Hershman Avital, graduated from the Hebrew Teachers College in 1951. Jordy and his siblings Alan and Shari attended the HC Prozdor high school program in the 1970's. We are also fortunate that HC graduates Rabbi David Fainsilber and Rabbi Micah Shapiro now enrich our lives through their inspiring leadership in our family's Jewish communities.

Kol hakavod to Rabbi Sharon Cohen Anisfeld, Andy Offit, and all those who continue to make HC a vital center for Jewish continuity and learning in Boston and beyond.

With thanks,

Mayyim Hayyim is proud to be a campus partner of Hebrew College

We are grateful to build collaborative community rooted in shared values in pluralism.

Mazel Tov to the honorees, Andy Offit and Dan Miller, whose leadership and generosity strengthens and is a blessing to the Boston Jewish community.

We hope you can join us on June 8 as we celebrate our outgoing CEO Carrie Bornstein and make waves for our future.

My one and only brother-in-law. My teacher of life's challenges. Too many wonderful words to describe this most humble of a man, I call my brother. He never boasts or brags, but deserves to be honored, daily, in my opinion, for all that he does for the community, his family, his friends, and the world. I myself am extremely lucky, and even more grateful that Dan is in my life. He may seem shy or quiet, but behind all that is a VERY smart, hardworking, genuine, loveable, silly, kind beyond words, truthful, thoughtful, considerate, daring at times, simple man, who gives and shares with no hesitation in mind. Congratulations on being honored this special evening. Love, your little sister, Jacquie-poops, as you call me! – Jacqueline Byers (Sister of Betty Ann Greenbaum Miller z"l)

Andy, our man for all these seasons. Mazal Tov and enormous gratitude! Lydia Kukoff
