I understand I am responsible for all materials checked out under my card and for all fines and assessments to my account; I will notify the library if the card is lost or if there are any changes to my name, address, phone number or email; I am aware that any overdue notices will be sent only to my email address; Failure to receive notices for whatever reason cannot be accepted as a reason for late return. Borrowers are therefore advised to check their Library Account regularly, which can be done through the Library Catalog (accessible through the web) or by contacting the Circulation Librarian. I have been given a copy of the library's circulation policies.
