Selection of Candidates

Admissions decisions are based on a careful review of a candidate's completed application, credentials, supporting documents and appropriateness for the degree program. Applicants for graduate-degree programs must have a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and a competitive GPA. Hebrew College admits qualified students without regard to age, sex, religion, disability, race, color or national origin. An application for financial aid does not in any way affect a candidate's application for admission.

Application

You may fill out the application by clicking here. Please send supporting materials to dron@hebrewcollege.edu.

You are responsible to ensure that all of your application materials are received; we welcome calls or emails from candidates regarding the status of their application.

Deadlines

Application deadlines are May 15 for fall admission, with a priority date of March 1, and Nov. 15 for spring admission. Extensions are granted on a case-by-case basis, though financial aid awards may be more limited for late applications.

Application Checklist All applicants must submit the following materials:

- A completed, signed application form
- Two essays, as described below
- Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate studies from accredited academic institutions.
- Please have official copies of transcripts forwarded directly from the issuing institution to the Office of Admissions, Hebrew College, 160 Herrick Rd., Newton Centre, MA, 02459.
- Three letters of recommendation, including at least one (if possible), from an academic instructor.
- Letters should be completed on this form and mailed directly to the Office of Admissions, or sent electronically to dron@hebrewcollege.edu.
- A nonrefundable application fee of $50.

Interview

The interview is an essential and required part of the application process for all Hebrew College graduate degree programs. This is an opportunity for us to get to know you and for you to learn more about the college and program for which you are applying. Interviews are conducted via Zoom.

Financial Aid

Information about our financial aid policies may be found here. If you are applying for financial aid, please complete the required forms and submit with your application materials according to the deadline schedule above.
