

Old Wine, New Vessels: A Hasidic Master Addresses Today's Seekers

An online Hebrew College course with Jewish scholar Rabbi Arthur Green, featuring the original Hasidic teachings of the Ba'al Shem Tov.

Join Rabbi Green for an eight-week exploration of his recent translation of the Hasidic Classic Me'or 'Eynayim, The Light of the Eyes (Stanford University Press October 2020), organized by Me'ah, Hebrew College's signature adult learning program.

- Delve into a remarkable Hasidic work that Rabbi Green describes as “a guide to the cultivation of spiritual awareness and the implications of such awareness for one's emotional and moral life.”
- Connect with the deep spiritual wisdom and healing powers of Hasidic teachings
- Explore how Hasidism can spiritually re-invigorate Judaism in today's contemporary world

Courses are open to all learners. No prior Jewish learning is required. Each one hour of text learning by Rabbi Green will be followed by a 30-minute Q & A.

For more information and to register hebrewcollege.edu/hasidic-master.

Me'ah Select is a one semester, in-depth exploration of a specific theme, text, personality, or slice of Jewish history, taught by outstanding scholar/educators.

Live on Zoom

Mondays, 12:30 - 2 PM (EDT)

Dates: October 19, 26, November 2, 9, 16, 23 & 30, and December 7

Session recordings will be made available for participants who are unable to join for “live” sessions

Cost: $200

HEBREW COLLEGE is a Boston-area institution of Jewish learning and leadership with a dual focus on community learning and graduate leadership – each of which strengthens the other – within a pluralistic environment of open inquiry, depth, creativity, and compassion.