

A Multiplicity of Voices:

The Biblical Legacy of Valuing Different Perspectives

Instructor: Dr. Susie Tanchel

Day/Time: 10 Thursdays, 9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Dates: 10/15, 10/22, 10/29, 11/5, 11/12,
11/19, 12/3, 12/10, 12/17, 1/7

Cost: $350, generous financial aid is available

Location: Zoom

ABOUT THE COURSE:

In this course we will study biblical texts closely, uncovering the multiple perspectives the texts offer on a variety of topics including founding myths, leadership (prophetic/kings), religious ideals, and women's sexuality. At this tense time of polarization in the United States, the Bible offers us a different path for managing disagreements. Through our class discussions we will explore what modern resonance lies within these ancient texts and how we might apply some of the learnings to our lives today. Our close analysis will employ a number of different methodologies, including literary readings, rabbinic and traditional, as well as academic. No prior knowledge of biblical texts is expected. Bring an open mind and heart.

Me'ah Select is a one semester, in-depth exploration of a specific theme, text, personality, or slice of Jewish history, taught by outstanding scholar/educators.

For more information contact Marilyn Stern at meah@hebrewcollege.edu

Open to all learners.

Registration coming soon!

Sponsored by Hebrew College

HEBREW COLLEGE is a Boston-area institution of Jewish learning and leadership with a dual focus on community learning and graduate leadership – each of which strengthens the other – within a pluralistic environment of open inquiry, depth, creativity, and compassion.