

JEWISH CULTUREFEST: Food, Music, and YOU!

Join us for any or all three of these virtual, Multi-generational and Interactive workshops:

- Celebrate culinary and musical traditions from around the Jewish world through the lens of three Jewish holidays
- Learn about the cross-cultural and interreligious influences woven throughout Jewish life
- Participate in a variety of interactive cooking and tasting activities

While the workshop is free, we would appreciate a suggested donation of $18 per household to help support this and other future community education programs.

WORKSHOP #1:

Tasting Hope: Embodying the Messages of Hanukkah & Christmas Sunday, December 6 | 2 - 3:30 PM

An Interreligious & cross-cultural exploration of Hanukkah and Christmas with Music, text learning, and a participatory culinary experience.

INSTRUCTORS

Rabbi Or Rose

Director, Miller Center of Interreligious Learning & Leadership of Hebrew College

Samir Selmanovic, Ph.D.

Founder, THE KITCHENHOOD, a cross-generational community dedicated to cooking mastery

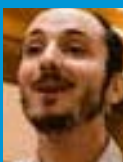

Register at hebrewcollege.edu/tasting-hope

You will have the opportunity to make a donation upon completing your registration.

SAVE THE DATES! UPCOMING PROGRAMS IN THE SERIES

Wednesday, January 27 | 7-8:30 PM

A Musical Meditation and celebration of Tu B'Shevat

Jackson Mercer

Musician, composer, Hebrew College rabbinical student, and host of Hebrew College's Niggun Seminar.

Shani Rosenbaum

Hebrew College rabbinical student and host of Hebrew College's Niggun Seminar.

Sunday, March 14
4-5:30 PM

A Passover Exploration

Program and presenter information coming soon!

