

JEWISH CULTUREFEST: Food, Music, and YOU!

Join us for one or both of the remaining virtual multi-generational and interactive workshops:

- Celebrate musical traditions from around the Jewish world through the lens of three Jewish holidays
- Learn about the cross-cultural and interreligious influences woven throughout Jewish life
- Participate in a variety of interactive cooking and tasting activities

WORKSHOP #2:

A Musical Meditation and Celebration for Tu B'Shvat

Wednesday, January 27 | 7 - 8:30 PM

Join us for a night of contemplation and melody as we dive into the taste of the seasons and our inner and outer worlds in celebration of the birthday of the trees, Tu B'Shevat.

INSTRUCTORS

Jackson Mercer

Musician, composer, Hebrew College rabbinical student, and co-creator of Hebrew College's Niggun Seminar

Shani Rosenbaum

Teacher, Hebrew College rabbinical student and co-creator of Hebrew College's Niggun Seminar

Although the program is free, we welcome a suggested donation of $18 per household to support future Jewish CultureFest programming

Register at hebrewcollege.edu/tu-bshevat

You will have the opportunity to make a donation upon completing your registration.

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE FINAL PROGRAM IN THE SERIES

Sunday, March 14, 4-5:30 PM

A Passover Exploration

Program and presenter information coming soon!

