Painter Joshua Meyer created “Eight Approaches,” an 8-part painting which debuted this past December at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston in partnership with the Jewish Arts Collaborative (JArts™).

Now, Meyer’s multilayered masterpiece is on display at the Hebrew College campus and you are invited to come experience the work!

Learn more about Eight Approaches, the process, and its layers of meaning with artist Joshua Meyer in conversation with JArts Executive Director, Laura Mandel.

Conversation to be followed by a tour of the newly installed Hebrew College art collection with curator Deborah Feinstein.

Special thanks to CJP Arts & Culture for support of this process.
