Chamber music prelude at 6:50

in partnership with Temple Reyim and Hebrew College

at the Newton Collaborative Jewish Campus
1860 Washington Street, Newton

Now in its 21st year, thousands of people have come together at the Birnbaum Lecture from all parts of Greater Boston's Jewish community to hear from some of the most prominent and inspirational scholars and leaders of our time – always in an atmosphere of openness, inclusion and mutual support

Featuring William Daroff
CEO of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations

William Daroff became the CEO of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations on February 1, 2020. In that capacity, he is the senior professional guiding the Conference's agenda on behalf of the 52 national member organizations, which represent the wide mosaic of American Jewish life. As CEO of the Conference, Daroff is in constant dialogue with key policymakers, members of Congress, and the White House. He regularly engages with the diplomatic corps in Washington and at the UN on a range of issues that are of interest to the American Jewish community.

Following his opening presentation, Mr. Daroff will be in conversation with three of our country's leading Jewish campus activists.
