

Hiding in Holland: A Resistance Memoir A Conversation with Dr. Shulamit Reinharz

Thursday, March 19, 2026
7-8:30 PM | Hebrew College | Free

We are excited to present Dr. Shulamit Reinharz, who will speak about her award-winning book, Hiding in Holland: A Resistance Memoir, based on papers she discovered that her father, Rabbi Max Rothschild, had kept. Together, Max and Shulamit tell the story of a Jewish man who saved his life repeatedly during the Holocaust, from growing up in Germany, becoming a Zionist, and being imprisoned in Buchenwald. Three years after fleeing to Holland, he went into hiding, saved by numerous Dutch Righteous Gentiles for three years. Hiding in Holland: A Resistance Memoir describes Max's roller-coaster ride of danger and safety, and the role that resistance played in his survival.

Register Now

Dr. Shulamit Reinharz is the Jacob Potofsky Professor of Sociology, Emerita, at Brandeis University. In the 1990's she directed the Women's Studies Program which offered a graduate degree in Jewish Women's Studies. In the 2000's she became the Founding Director of the Women's Studies Research Center, the Founding Director of the Hadassah-Brandeis Institute, and the Founding Director of the Kniznick Gallery of Feminist Art, all at Brandeis University. In 2015, she received an honorary degree from Hebrew College.

Event Co-Hosts

Rabbi Susan Harris
Annette Miller
Suzanne Priebatsch
Rabbi Ma'ayan Sands
Arnee R. Winshall

Event Co-Sponsors

